Tesorera Municipal

The first of these is the fact that the system is not self-sufficient. It is dependent on the external environment for its survival. This is a major weakness of the system, as it makes it vulnerable to external influences. The second is that the system is not flexible. It is rigid and inflexible, and this makes it difficult to adapt to changing circumstances.
 The third is that the system is not transparent. It is opaque and unaccountable, and this makes it difficult to understand and control. The fourth is that the system is not democratic. It is authoritarian and undemocratic, and this makes it difficult to challenge and reform. The fifth is that the system is not sustainable. It is short-termist and unsustainable, and this makes it difficult to maintain and improve.
